CONSENT MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

Robert G. Casagrande, an applicant in the above-referenced proceeding, hereby requests a brief extension, from June 17, 1993 until June 28, 1993, within which time to submit an Opposition to the Petition to Enlarge Issues filed by Janice M. Scantland (Scantland) on June 4, 1993. Good cause exists for the requested extension.

Scantland's petition was filed with the FCC on June 4, 1993 and served on counsel by first class mail. A copy of the petition was received in today's mail directed to Gene A. Bechtel. Mr. Bechtel, the primary attorney in this case on behalf of Mr. Casagrande, however, left this morning for a previously scheduled and much deserved one-week vacation with his family and is not scheduled to return to the office until next Tuesday, June 15, 1993, two days before the opposition to the petition is currently due. Mr. Cole is also out of the office this week, and undersigned counsel is therefore "alone," in monitoring both Mr. Bechtel's and Mr. Cole's caseloads as well as her own. Accordingly, a brief extension of time is necessary so that upon Mr. Bechtel's return, an opposition can be prepared and filed.

Given that this is a two-party proceeding which is in its early stages, no undue delay or disruption to the hearing proceeding is likely to occur. Counsel for Scantland and the Mass Media Bureau have also kindly consented to the requested extension.

Accordingly, for the foregoing reasons, Robert G. Casagrande requests that his Consent Motion for Extension of Time be granted and that the time for the submission of his Opposition be extended until June 28, 1993.

Respectfully submitted,
